

Synopsis

CA Magazine October 2010

International report:

Profiling CAs who have made their home abroad, whether permanently or temporarily, with advice on how to follow in their footsteps and use your qualification to build an international career. Also: how to make your business a success in international markets, with advice on export finance, marketing overseas and protecting your revenue against currency fluctuations.

Business banking and finance:

Quarterly report on banking and corporate finance issues for businesses and their advisers. Including: Banks say they are “open for business” again, but how have the restrictions on bank lending affected dealmaking? What has this meant for entrepreneurs and private equity investors? and Refinancing - what to do when your loan agreement is up for renewal.

Insolvency and corporate recovery:

Special report including:
What has the downturn meant for insolvency practitioners?
Profiles of leading figures in the sector;
Have insolvency reforms made it too easy for individuals to clear their debts? and
What changes may be in store following the Office of Fair Trading report on corporate insolvency fees and regulation?

Insolvency round table:

Read about CA Magazine’s round table discussion with key players from the world of insolvency and corporate recovery.

CA Conference:

Report from the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland’s conference at the prestigious Gleneagles Hotel, including interviews with key speakers.

CA Magazine also carries regular articles on accounting, auditing, tax and other professional topics, as well as management, business travel, law and finance issues generally.

